Verse

“Until We Meet Again” By Chauntia Chisholm

Read By Alana Ball

Each morning when we awake, we know that you are gone.
And no one knows the heartache as we try to carry on.
Our hearts still ache with sadness, and many tears still flow.
What it meant to lose you, no one will ever know.
Our thoughts are always with you, your place no one can fill.
In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still.
There will always be a heartache, and often a silent tear,
But always a precious memory. Of the days when you were here.
If tears could make a staircase. And heartaches make a lane,
We'd walk the path to heaven. And bring you home again.
We hold you close within our hearts. And there you will remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives. Until we meet again.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth,
As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory,
For ever and ever. Amen

Poem

"Our Dianne"

Read By Marion Way

In the heart of Wagga's gentle breeze, Lies the memory of Di, a soul at ease.
With grace she walked, with love she spoke, a kindred spirit, never to revoke.
In fashion's realm, she found her light, impeccably dressed, a radiant sight.
With every smile, with every sway, she left an imprint, come what may.
From Mount Erin to De Sallies' door, her elegance and charm, forevermore.
In love's embrace, with Ed by her side, Their bond eternal, no need to hide.
Though illness came, her spirit soared, in Mary Potter's care, she was adored.
Now in the realm beyond our gaze, her memory blooms, in timeless ways.
Darling Di, may you rest in peace, your legacy of love, it shall not cease.
In every whisper of the wind, every ray of light, your presence lingers, forever bright.
